Pests Wiped Out.
Recently a government hunter shot two male wolves which had killed 150 sheep and seven colts on two Wyoming ranches, while another trapper bagged a pair of old wolves which had a record of killing $4,000 worth of livestock a year. A third trapper destroyed 85 coyotes and 2 bobcats in one month, using six horses and 200 traps over a trap line varying from 50 to 100 miles in length.

The Descent of Man.
Professor Jehu, at the Edinburgh university, recently said: "Some Madagascarese tribes believe that man descended from the crocodile, and they regard these animals as brothers, but when one crocodile so far forgets the ties of kinship as to eat a man, it is caught, tried and generally executed."
